ALTEC LANSING®

Let Your Sansa Fill the Room

When it comes to your Sansa listening experience, there's only one thing missing. Actually two: Speakers. Thankfully, Altec Lansing has solved the problem. The inMotion iM413 is a powerful new portable stereo system with surround effect technology. It's sleek – your Sansa will cradle beautifully in it. And it delivers such full-range, full-bodied sound, you'll want to carry it around from room to room. The iM413's twin bass-enhanced neodymium speakers really do the trick. It features a built-in FM radio and a wireless remote. And you can plug the system in or use batteries. So let your music out! The iM413 will show you how.
